

Exhibition guidelines of the Felidae e.V.

Status: 01.01.2012

§1 Goals of the exhibitions

1. To give cat owners the opportunity to breed their cats with other animals of the same variety to be compared on a larger scale at international level.
2. To give breeding incentives through greater exhibition competition at international level, to promote the quality of the animals in terms of colour, type, health and care and to improve.
3. Exchange of experiences and technical talks with members of other clubs, especially allow other countries.
  4. Show visitors and cat lovers the cat in all its breed and color variety imagine bringing them closer to the nature of the cat and thereby greater Finding understanding for the cat as a pet.
5. A large number of show cats and an improvement in the quality of shows to give new incentives to visit exhibitions.

§2 Winner entitlements

1. National shows are shows until the CAC is awarded.
2. International cat shows are staffed by an international jury. The selection the jury lies with the organizer. There should be at least 120 cats present.
3. Titles and entitlements can only be accepted at national and international exhibitions of the clubs recognized by Felidae e.V.

§3 Registrations

All members of other clubs, as well as non-club cat owners, are entitled to their Exhibiting cats at Felidae e.V. exhibitions. However, the exhibition management is entitled to reject reports without giving reasons. With the registration confirmation On special request, the exhibitor will be provided with the applicable exhibition guidelines given for a fee. With the registration, the Felidae e.V. revocable the authorization granted to the exhibitor at later information send exhibitions.

§4 Cancellations or re-registrations

Exhibitors who cannot come to the exhibition or their registered cats are ill or if there are other reasons, this must be done at least 21 days before inform the exhibition management. Unexcused absences can lead to an exhibition ban. The provisions of the latest valid version apply reporting form.

§5 Vaccinations

1. Every cat over 12 weeks old must be vaccinated against panleukopenia be. Depending on the vaccine, the vaccination must not be older than 1 or 2 years.
2. Exhibited litters or single babies require primary vaccination unless fully vaccinated Mother cat is present, rabies vaccination is obligatory.
3. The vaccination record must be presented upon entry and must be valid.

§6 Permitted animals

Each animal to be exhibited is subject to a thorough health check upon entry.

1. Only healthy, parasite-free (mites, fleas, mushrooms, etc.) cats. The decision of admission rests with the investigator. If an animal is rejected, for whatever reason, the animal decides

- together with the organizer, whether all other animals of the exhibitor be rejected.
2. If one or more animals are rejected, registration fees and others non-refundable costs.
  3. Cats with surgical and/or cosmetic changes will not be eligible judging allowed.
  4. Cats that fall ill during the exhibition may no longer be exhibited and also not to be judged.
  5. Uncontrolled cats may not be brought into the exhibition hall. At Violations will result in the exhibitor being excluded from the exhibition.
  6. If, despite admission controls, the judge only determines that an animal is not free of parasites or sick, he can make a disqualification. Here a must second judge to countersign.
  7. Must also lead to disqualification:
    - intentionally misreporting a cat
    - premature removal of a cat from the showrooms without consent the exhibition management.
    - Violations of the exhibition conditions.

§7 Exhibition number

Each exhibited cat will receive an exhibition number.

§8 Cages

1. One show cage is available for each registered cat, unless the In consultation with the exhibitor, the organizer allocates a cage for several animals. Once Assigned cages may only be changed with the consent of the exhibition management become. Accommodations other than the cages provided are not permitted, exceptions are the Sturdi show shelters, but only the model here "Habitat".
2. Each cage needs to be lined with a soft pad and has three sides with provided with a privacy screen (curtain) to avoid unnecessary stress for the animals. It There must also be a feeding and drinking bowl and a litter box.
3. Leaning on the cages is strictly forbidden. The cage as well as the stand is after the leave the exhibition clean. The organizer can charge a penalty equal to the registration fee.

§9 Accommodation of the animals

The exhibitor is obliged to keep his cats indoors for the entire duration of the exhibition to leave the cage. It is forbidden to leave animals in the exhibition hall overnight. The Cats must be adequately cared for and the litter box must always be kept clean. The Feeding chicks and mice is strictly forbidden during the show.

§10 Obligation of the exhibitor to be present

In principle, the exhibitor or a person commissioned by him has during the To be present at the cage during the judging in order to be accessible to the exhibition management at any time to be able to comply with the steward's request to present his animal to the judge or if necessary to be able to hand over the cat to the steward.

§11 Stewards

The chief steward supervises the judge's room. He's across from the other stewards authorized to give instructions

§12 Judges

1. The cats are judged by recognized judges. By what standard judged, the organizer decides. National judges may no matter which Only issue form grades up to the CAC.
2. Judges and student judges are allowed to show their cats at shows where they themselves judge, only exhibit out of competition. You may not before the end of the judging Get a glimpse of the exhibition catalog and not the exhibition hall if possible enter.
3. During judging, exhibitors are only allowed to contact judges in context with their own cat or after approval by the exhibition management permitted.

§13 Certificate and judge's report

The certificate with the judge's report on it will only be sent shortly before the end of the event handed out. The judgment of the judge is final. Derogatory remarks or even insults to a judge will result in immediate exit from the exhibition and result in a general exhibition ban at Felidae e.V.

§14 Smoking ban

There is a general ban on smoking in the hall for the duration of the exhibition.

§15 Neutrality

The exhibition management may not influence the judging and the selection of those to be proposed take cats.

§16 Exhibition classes

At international exhibitions of the Felidae e.V., cats can be in the following exhibition classes separated into longhair, shorthair, semilonghair and exotic shorthair as well

Domestic cats are reported and win entitlements and titles there:

- Litter class (from the completed 10th week up to and including the 15th week) - litter at least three animals
  - Baby class (from the completed 10th week to less than 3 months)
    - Youth class 3 - <6 months
    - Youth class 6 - <9 months
    - Open Class / Neuter Class
  - Champion Class / Premier Class
  - International Champion Class / International Premier Class
  - Large International Champion Class / Gr.Int.Premier Class
    - European Champion / European Premier Class
    - Grand Europa Champion / Grand Europa Premier
      - The title ICAC (Intercontinental Champion) / ICAP (Intercontinental Premier) to be achieved. These titles are identical to the Titles CACM (World Champion) / CAPM (World Premier) of the WCF.
        - Honor class
- Animals with title Gr.Euro-Ch. / Pr. or domestic cats with the title of Large Domestic Cat Champion
  - Determination class

This class is for cats of a recognized breed according to their pedigree belong, but whose color does not match that given in the pedigree matches. These cats will be judged by two of those present judges color reclassified and the appropriate show class assigned, which may change with reclassification. Only then will such animals are then evaluated by the responsible judge. in class will an increased registration fee.

- Novice class

Destiny Class and Novice Class are identical except that the cats here first of two present judges on a possible Breed affiliation checked and also classified according to color. Are the animals are assigned to a breed and color, these are then relevant judge. Again, the double to pay the exhibition fee. By means of the certificate and the judge's report the respective animal can then be entered in the stud book.

- Domestic cat class

For all cats that cannot be assigned to any known standard. It will all Form grades as for pedigree cats, but only awarded from the open class. It only an "H" precedes the candidacy.

- Out of competition

For cats that are shown but not judged. It's them to pay published exhibition fees. Exceptions to this are Nurses and dams of a litter.

Cats out of competition will only be accepted if at least two animals are in competition are registered.

§17 Awards

Best in Variety

This title can be awarded by the judge if of the respective variety at least three animals of the same breed and color are present, the decision of the However, awarding Best Variety is at the sole discretion of the judge. The judge can refuse to award the title if none of the animals exhibited after his perception comes close enough to the ideal. The title will be given on the exhibition certificate confirmed.

Special Prize

This title can be awarded by the judge if the respective variety does not required three animals of the same breed and color are present, the decision however, awarding a special prize is at the sole discretion of the judge. The judge may refuse to award the title if none of the animals exhibited after its perception comes close enough to the ideal. The title will be given on the exhibition certificate confirmed.

Best in Show

This title is chosen in a secret ballot from the respective proposals of all judges between the categories longhair, semi-longhair, shorthair and exotic shorthair, as well as the Special shows for breeds with more than 30 entered animals, determined. The titling will be noted on the certificate of issue.

Best of Best

From the animals awarded the "Best in Show" award, all judges jointly decide in secret ballot (simple majority) each a best of best for longhair, semi-longhair, Shorthair and Exotic-Shorthair, as well as the special shows for breeds with more than 30 reported animals, determined. In the event of a tie, the judge decides determining chief judge, who as a rule should be an all-breed judge, at least but must be an all-round judge for the hair category in question. The title will be awarded noted on the certificate of issue.

Best over All

The four Best of Best cats will either be from one to be determined beforehand Allbreed judges or by all judges present who are judges in at least one category All-round judges are the best of the best cats. The title "Best over All" is in noted on the certificate of issue.

§18 Color and breed descriptions

Color and breed descriptions are only done in the youth and open classes at least two judges possible. All titles won up to that point will then be lost and that The animal must be exhibited again in the breed and color now specified. cats, who have already successfully won a title may be of the same breed, color and Affiliation can no longer be issued in a lower class.

§19 Pictures

Felidae e.V. reserves the right to take photos and films during the exhibition of the event and to use this free of charge for self-promotion use.

§20 Liability

As the organizer, Felidae e.V. is exempt from any liability. exhibitors and visitors are liable for any damage caused by you or your animals.